FAQ

Electricity:

Electricity will be provided via commercial generators for everyone 6am-10pm each day. 24 hour electricity will be provided for attendees that have medical needs, and their trailers will have specific parking spaces near the electrical supply.

Water:

Water will not be provided for your trailer. There will be water available from a regular water hydrant at the back of the museum (city drinking water-potable water). Bring your own water container.

Minimal gray water discharge is allowed. (to prevent mud holes)

Sewer:

Sewer hookups are not provided. Portable toilets will be provided on-site as well as an 8 unit shower house (4 for females, 4 for males). Use of "honey wagon" is permitted and there will be a dumping facility on the property.

Hand Washing Station:

Hand washing station will be located near the portable toilets.

Arrival & Departure:

Early arrival is allowed up to 24 hours.

Trailers will not be allowed after Friday, Oct. 19, 10pm.

Any attendees needing to stay beyond Sunday, Oct. 22—please contact Clint Cox.

Rules & Guidelines

- This event is held on the Tulsa International Airport property, therefore the following rules must be strictly followed.
 - Absolutely no firearms allowed.
 - Any tarps, awnings or other loose flapping materials MUST be secured as there is an active runway close by.
 - No bright or blinking/flashing lights outside of trailers as there are landing aircraft nearby.
 - NO OPEN FIRES; No campfires or open flames permitted, but gas BBQ grills are permitted on paved or concrete areas, such as the employee parking lot.
 - Dogs are not allowed in the museum buildings and tarmac area. Dogs are permitted in the trailer area.
 - Do not park within 20 feet of the airport access road to Gate 90. (south side of field)

The following items will be visually inspected at check-in.

- All trailers must be equipped with an up-to-date fire extinguisher.
- All vintage tow vehicles are also required to have a fire extinguisher.

On Wed, Thursday and Friday, participants are allowed to set up tables to sell/trade trailer parts. This is not allowed on Saturday, which is the day for the public viewing of the trailers and open access to the public.

Other "crafty" or "Spartan" items for sale can be displayed during the whole event.
